ACADEMIC MONITORING CELL 2020-2021

Academic monitoring cell collected feedback/Grievances from UG and PG students pertaining to internal Model examinations conducted on during academic year 2020-21 after completion of the internal and model exams. The report is as follows:

The favorable responses regarding the examination were:

- Question paper was easy, well planned and time bound.
- Conducting regular internal assessment in absolute protocols that simulated university exams will train us in writing the university exams more efficiently.
- These exams also helped us to familiarize with the university exam questions and models.
- Routine exams also help us in revising the topics and identify our weak areas and work hard on those topics.
- These exams also help us in time management and perform well.
- These exams enhanced our planning in presenting the answers based on the weightage of marks distributed.
- Internal and model exams definitely helped us in frequent revisions and will save time during our university exam preparations.

Grievances towards internal examination conducted by college:

- Clinical postings need to be cancelled during exams.
- Gaps should be given between each exams.
- Revision tests with chapter or section wise to be conducted prior to model exams.
- Reconduct improvement exams for those who are interested apart from failed students and absentees.
- Provide enough time to prepare prior to model exams.

- Revision classes to be conducted prior to model exams.
- Answer sheets correction should be more liberal.
- Measures should be taken to eliminate evaluation bias.
- Question paper discussion has to be done subject wise along with answer key.
- Guidelines and tips on how to write a university paper should be given.
- Slow learners need special guidance and coaching by respective mentors.

Grievances towards University examinations:

- MCQs to be included in question paper.
- Optional topics to be given for essays.
- Time is not sufficient to complete the paper during university exam.
- Cool off should be increased for familiarize and understand questions and plan the answers.
- Provision for re-evaluation should be considered by the university for failed students.
