Children and adults with impairments and special needs are more vulnerable to health issues, require additional assistance, and rely on others to attain and maintain good health. One of their most critical health demands is a clean mouth, which will be influenced by your capacity to provide the appropriate support. Many parents/caregivers of people with special needs, on the other hand, lack sufficient knowledge or understanding of special care dentistry and homecare regimens for these people, putting them at greater risk of poor oral health outcomes. An informative session on oral hygiene awareness was taken by Dr. Marium Raheema (Professor, Dept of Pedodontics & Preventive Dentistry). The team included a staff, PG, Interns, Final year Part I students and demonstrated oral hygiene and brushing techniques to the caretakers & inmates of the institution. A total of 5 caretakers and 12 inmates were benefitted by the informative session.

Everyone is susceptible to common oral disorders. For children and adults with unique health care needs, however, these typical oral disorders can be considerably more challenging. Children and adults with special needs are more likely to experience oral problems. Oral health concerns tend to worsen if dental care is postponed. In the long run, it is not uncommon for these people to require extensive dental care as a result of their poor oral hygiene. A session on oral health awareness was taken by Dr. Rohit Mohan (Senior Lecturer, Dept of Oral Pathology & Microbiology). The team included a 1 staff and 6 PG's, Interns, Final year Part I students and demonstrated measures to improve oral hygiene to the caretakers & inmates of the institution. A total of 7 caretakers and 22 inmates were benefitted by the interactive session.

Dental care for people with disabilities necessitates specific knowledge and skills, as well as increased community awareness of good oral hygiene habits. Individuals with particular health requirements are more prone to oral disorders throughout their lives, according to studies. Oral health difficulties can lead to major health problems, which can have a substantial impact on an individual's quality of life. As a result, more emphasis should be placed on improving the oral health of individuals, particularly those with unique medical needs. So an informative session on oral hygiene awareness was taken by Dr. Santhosh V C (Professor, Dept of Periodontics).
