INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP
DEVELOPMENT CENTRE

6.3.1 The institution has effective welfare measures for teaching and non-teaching staff.

EMPOLYEES WELFARE POLICY

The Board of Trustees of the KMCT Group of Institution provides the following Welfare measures for their employees and their families like different insurance Schemes, Gratuity, Staff Accommodation, Security, Cafeteria, Bank facility, Yoga Centre, Gym and play ground.

The Insurance schemes are:

- ESI scheme
- Provident Fund Scheme
- Dental Insurance
- Health Insurance (Optional)
- Otolaryngology Insurance (Optional)
- Obstetrics and Gynaecology (Optional)
- Maternity Leave Under ESI Scheme

The employees can opt any two welfare schemes available within the first ten days of appointment.

EMPLOYEES' STATE INSURANCE SCHEME

There is an integrated measure of Social Insurance embodied in the Employees' State Insurance Act and it is designed to accomplish the task of protecting 'employees' as defined in the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 against the impact of incidences of sickness, maternity, disablement and death due to employment injury and to provide medical care to insured persons and their families. The Employees of the college drawing wages upto Rs.21,000/- a month, are entitled to social security cover under the ESI Act. The ESI Scheme is financed by contributions from employers and employees. The rate of contribution by employer is 4.75% of the wages payable to employees. The employees' contribution is at the rate of 1.75% of the wages payable to an employee.

PROVIDENT FUND SCHEME

A provident fund is a government-managed, mandatory retirement savings scheme. These funds also share some characteristics with pension funds provided by employers. A worker gives a portion of his/her salary to the provident fund, and an employer should make a contribution on behalf of the employees. The money in the fund is then kept and handled by the government and ultimately withdrawn by the retirees or their surviving families. The provident fund even pays out to the disabled, who are not in a condition to work.

As per the rules, in EPF the Employees drawing less than Rs 15,000 per month have to mandatorily become members of the EPF and employee whose 'pay' is more than Rs 15,000 a month at the time of joining, is not eligible and is called non-eligible employee. 12 percent of the salary must go towards provident fund. Employer is also required to contribute the same 12 percent, out of which 8.33 percent of the salary is directed towards the Employee Pension Scheme or EPS. The remaining 3.67 percent are put into EPF.

DENTAL INSURANCE

Dental Insurance is common for all employees. The effective date for the employee is the successful completion of one year of probation period. The institution provides 50% reimbursement of the total cost of the Dental Treatments.

HEALTH INSURANCE (Optional)

Health insurance is optional to all employees those who have successfully completed of one year of probation period. The institution provides 30% reimbursement of the total cost of the Treatments in KMCT Medical College.

OTOLARYNGOLOGY & VISION CARE PLAN (Optional)

The Otolaryngology & Vision Care Plan is designed to encourage maintenance of vision, throat, nose and ear through regular examinations and to help with expenses. Coverage is provided to employees who have successfully completed of one year of probation period.

OBSTETRICS AND GYNECOLOGY PLAN (Optional)

Obstetrics and gynecology plan is designed to support regular gynecology examinations of females above 40 years of age and to provides 30% reimbursement of the total cost of the treatments in KMCT women and child hospital. Coverage is provided to employees who have successfully completed one year of probation period.

GUIDELINES FOR MATERNITY LEAVE UNDER ESI SCHEME

- a) Eligibility for Paid maternity leave under ESI scheme is provided under the general provisions of the Maternity benefit Act. Under this legislation, women staff of the College, those who are covered under ESI scheme are entitled to maternity leave for each pregnancy for a period of 26 weeks. This period includes 6 weeks compulsory maternity leave following the birth of the child. Maternity leave is applicable for a women only up to two existing child.

- b) Process to avail Maternity Leave Expecting women must apply for maternity leave and provide 10 weeks' notice before the expected date of delivery. This must be followed by sending an application to the respective Principal, Administrative Officer and HR Manager indicating the intention to take maternity leave, the likely date of commencement and the period of leave required. A doctor's certificate confirming pregnancy must be provided.
- c) Commencement of maternity leave Women staff may commence maternity leave any time prior to the expected date of birth of the child, provided the overall period of maternity leave does not exceed 26 weeks including 6 weeks after the birth of the child.
- d) Combining Maternity Leave and accumulated leave balance Women staff may take a part or full accumulated leave entitlement along with maternity leave.
- e) Extension of Maternity leaves Post completion of maternity leave as per the Act, the woman staff may extend leave by a further period of 3 months. However, to avail this benefit of extension, the staff must first avail the balance leave to credit, and the remaining period up-to and inclusive of the extended 3 months will be treated as leave without pay. This leave is not the right of the employee and hence can be availed only upon approval from the management.
